ABOUT

Welcome! We're glad you like us enough to learn more about us! NOW, let's get down to business. We're Emmanuel College Radio, an online station that hopes to give viewers the opportunity to listen to a range of music, talk shows, podcasts, and anything else the EC community desires. As many of our followers may know we've kind of been MIA for a while but now we're back and better than ever and siked to get people listening again. Thank you to those have stuck with us these past couple years and have had the patience to see us get here. To those that are newcomers thanks for deciding to become part of our radio family, we hope to go above and beyond all of your expectations.

Thanks again, EC Radio Staff
